

Kauri Academy
New Zealand

ACADEMY NEWSLETTER

March 6, 2015

Waitomo Caves

Week Six- Break!

Next week is week five of this module, and the break week for students.

Enjoy New Zealand, the Waitomo Caves are one of our tourist spots, about 2 hours drive south of Auckland.

Enjoy your break and there will be no newsletter next week.

BITS AND PIECES

STUDENT INFORMATION

Uniform: Niki will be taking orders for the black winter jackets. We hope to have some more samples later in the month.

Please see Niki if you wish to purchase one, they will be $40.

If you are having any trouble with your assessments, please speak to your tutor, they are very willing to help you. If you get the assessment correct with no MER, you have more time and so does the tutor!

Hobbiton in NZ, Always worth a visit!

REMINDERS

Don't forget to put your answers for assessments in a word doc first, as you can then check your spelling and sentences through the checker. If you see pretty green or red colours, you have made a mistake! Ensure you have your computer set up with NZ English as the language.

What's on in Auckland this weekend?

- Hannah's Pick

Cricket World Cup

Head on down to the Cricket World Cup fan zone at Britomart to see Pakistan play South Africa at 2pm or Ireland play Zimbabwe at 4:30pm Saturday. On Sunday New Zealand will play Afghanistan at 11am and Australia will be playing Sri Lanka at 4:30pm. Entry to the fan zone is free.

Movies in the park

This Friday at 6:30pm 'The Book Thief' will be showing at Grey Lynn Park, Grosvenor street.

Auckland Zoo

This week at Auckland Zoo it is 'SeaWeek'. There will be daily costal encounters from 10am-3.30pm daily. For students Auckland Zoo is $23 per student.

Cricket World Cup at Britomart

